What's Next

If we knew what's coming next Might we feel vexed, perplexed?
Knowing answers spoil the surprise Aspect of mystery, seems wise

Ever think... "got too much on my plate?
How do I deal with this thing called fate?

Inner resources come to the fore Like waves rushing to meet the shore

Constant are they..like the tide
From time not one can hide

Sweet serenity, does it exist?
Or is what's next, an ironic twist?
Secret wishes for which we yearn Reality decides to spurn

Choice is ours, choose what you will

Challenge no the old windmill Live, laugh, love...grow wise
Get ready to meet the next surprise

HEBREW SCHOOL HAPPENINGS

Our sincere thanks to all who helped make the High Holiday Junior Congregation Services enjoyable and meaningful, among them Michael Busch, Michael Oquendo, Lisa Busch, and Lauren Ochs.

The children are settling down and adjusting to Hebrew School. The High Holidays are over, and we finally have full weeks of school. Our new textbooks have arrived; we are planning an exciting curriculum.

Sunday, October 24, we went on our first trip to the Long Island Jewish Discovery Museum, where they are celebrating 350 years of Jewish Life on Long Island.

Our first Kabbalat Shabbat is scheduled for November 19 Service and Dinner.
His year the children will be conducting the Services. We look forward to the entire congregation attending.

On Sunday, November 7, we are going to the Holocaust Resource Center. As you can see, we are very busy with varied activities. We welcome the participation of our parents and would like to form a PTA. Please call me if you are interested.
I would also much appreciate any ideas you may have for fund-raising.

We will be collecting food for the needy for Thanksgiving and will also be collecting new toys for Jewish children for Chanukah. Please contribute to these two worthwhile drives.

Shalom,

Barbara Semel
